

DO BETTER WITH A LEADER IN FINANCIAL SERVICES

“I would say my career,
in many ways, chose me.”

I specialize in helping women take charge of their money. As a mother of two young girls, I understand the challenges of balancing family, community, career and finance.

I've built my career on the core values of trust, integrity and service, as well as my expertise and education.

It's rewarding when you help someone make it through life's toughest transitions. I'm proud of the impact I have on my clients' well-being.
